WILLIAM W. HOLDEN

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

People of North Carolina.

WHEREAS, a Convention of the People of N. Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection, and domestic violence; And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare, that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November 1865, as follows:

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of N. Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the 4th Monday of November, 1865, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the 10th day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualification of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to propuce ill feeling and alienation towards the federal government The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestations there should be, of hostility to the federal government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

FOR GOVERNOR,

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Jonathan Worth was nominated by a sore-head faction in the Convention. All the true Union men, who desired harmony advised him not to run. But others who wanted office and preferment, sacrificed the harmony of the people, in this solemn hour, for personal aggrandizement. This conduct led to the war, can it restore us? Must we not turn over a new leaf and let the office seek the man and not the man seek the office.

Raleigh Standard.

Just as we expected. A clique of broken down politicians have hoisted the name of Jonathan Worth for Governor, merely to create a schism in the ranks of the true Union men in the State. They know that, their tenure of office depends upon success in demagogism. If they can succeed in deceiving the people into the belief that Governor Holden does not possess the confidence of the President, and that Jonathan Worth does, there is a hope that they will come in for some of the spoils of office. This is what they desire. They should not succeed. If the people will but look to their interest and the interest of the State, they will be beaten and scattered, as enemies to the government.

Governor Holden, undoubtedly, possesses the confidence of the President, Andrew Johnson who is our friend. His great abilities eminently qualify him for the responsible position of chief Magistrate of the State. He can do more towards securing for us an early readmission into the Union, than any other man in North Carolina, because of the relation which he sustains to the President, and of his well known opposition to the defunct Confederate government.

Then, we have no hesitency in saying that, if the people would hasten the return of civil law, of prosperity and permanent peace, they should vote for Governor Holden in opposition to all candidates of whatever professions. They will thus show their appreciation of the statesman-like policy of President Johnson, and subserve their own interest and that of our good old State.

N. C. STATE CONVENTION.

NIGHT SESSION.

October 16th, 7 o'clock, P. M.

Mr. McRae, of Cumberland, moved a suspension of the rules in order to take up an ordinance providing for the election of two members of the House of Commons from the County of Cumberland, and one from the County of Harnett. The motion was agreed to and the ordinance passed its several readings.

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, moved, that the ordinance concerning revenue be now taken up, and the ordinance "declaring what laws and ordinances are in force," be made the special order for to-morrow, at 11 o'clock.

Both of these motions prevailed, and the clerk read the "ordinance to provide revenue for the year 1865."

Upon motion of Mr. Howard, of Edgecombe, the ordinance was considered by sections.

The ordinance will be published in full when passed.

Mr. Wright, of New Hanover, moved an amendment to the first section, so that the tax shall be paid "in the existing national currency," which was agreed to.

Mr. Sloan of Gaston moved to amend the third section, so as to tax all liquors made out of the State and imported into it, fifty cents per gallon. The amendment prevailed.

Mr. Lyon of Granville, moved to amend the eleventh section, first to reduce the tax on retailers to twenty five dollars, which failing, to fifty dollars, but the last amendment also failed.

Mr. Wright of New Hanover proposed an amendment to this section, providing that where retailers have already, under the existing law, paid a tax, they shall have credit therefor. The amendment prevailed.

Mr. Dockery of Richmond, moved to amend the thirteenth section, imposing a tax upon pedlars, to include pedlars of "spirituous liquors." The amendment was adopted.

Mr. McDonald of Moore, moved to amend also by adding "tobacco" but it did not prevail.

Mr. Lyon of Granville, moved to except "flour" as one of the articles of merchandize included in the section, and it was adopted.

Mr. Odom of Northampton moved to include "tobacco" in the fifteenth section, imposing a tax upon cotton held or owned in the State. The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Odom also moved to include "tobacco" in the sixteenth section, imposing a tax on cotton held or owned at any time during 1865 by any person other than the producer, which was adopted.

Mr. Jones of Columbus moved to strike out the tax of "ten cents" on each barrel of tar, turpentine and rosin and insert "five cents."

Mr. Howard of Edgecombe supported the amendment, as the tax would come out of the producer entirely, as these articles came into competition with similar articles produced in other States. The amendment prevailed.

Mr. Jones also moved to strike out "twenty" and insert "ten" in the eighteenth section, imposing a tax upon every barrel of tar held at any time during 1865. The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Eaton of Warren moved to include "tobacco" among the articles excluded in the nineteenth section.

Mr. Eaton also made a similar amendment in the twentieth section. Both of these motions prevailed.

Mr. Caldwell of Burke, moved to amend the twenty-sixth section, so that the Sheriffs will have six per cent commissions on all sums under one thousand dollars—five per cent on all sums over one thousand and under two thousand dollars,—and four per cent on all sums over two thousand dollars. This amendment was agreed to.

The Ordinance then passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Phillips of Orange, at 10 o'clock, P. M., adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

FOURTEENTH DAY.

October 17th, 1865.

The President called the Convention to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The journal was read and approved.

The Hon. R. P. Dick, one of the delegates from the County of Guilford, presented his credentials and was qualified. Mr. Dick has heretofore been detained from his seat by severe illness.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. Donnell from the committee on constitutional amendments made his reports, the first in reference to the "resolutions concerning certain amendments to the constitution" introduced by Mr. Love of Jackson, (heretofore published;) that the first and second resolutions (concerning our federal relations and slavery) had been acted on by the Convention; that the third, in reference to the "basis of representation" had been referred to a special committee; and the fourth and fifth, the one in relation to the qualifications of the Governor of the State, and the other, as to the propriety of making the office of Lieutenant Governor, involve questions of constitutional amendment, which require more consideration than the business of the Convention will probably admit of at this session.

The other in regard to the resolutions introduced by Mr. Allen of Duplin, making inquiry as to the expediency of making a fixed value of real estate as a qualification of members of the General Assembly, instead of a number of acres, and also the age at which such members shall be qualified, and further as to the time a voter should reside in the county in which he votes prior to the election, report that these subjects will necessarily be involved in the inquiries and labors of the committee appointed to "revise the Constitution."

Mr. Winborne of Chowan, from the committee appointed "to examine the calendar and report what ordinances and resolutions were, in their opinion necessary for the Convention to act upon during its present session, and also to appoint a day for the adjournment of this body have discharged that duty, and reported that the "ordinance declaring what laws and ordinances are in force and for other purposes," now on its third reading. "Resolutions of thanks to President Johnson and Governor Holden." Resolutions concerning the enrollment of the ordinance to declare null and void the ordinance of secession." "Ordinance in relation to the late officers of the State." Resolutions to appoint a committee to report how much of the late debt was for war purposes, how much for other purposes, the specie value of said debt, the least means of discharging the same and giving us a good currency and relief to the people." Resolution requesting the President to proclaim the people of North Carolina restored to their rights and privileges under the constitution and the Union." "Resolution to constitute a commission to prepare and report to the Legislature a code of laws on the subject of freedmen." "Resolutions requesting the Governor to correspond with the President of the United States with regard to officers and citizens confined by the military authorities in Raleigh and Wilmington North Carolina." "An ordinance to appoint a Judge to determine State claims to property." "Resolution concerning enrolment of the ordinance prohibiting slavery in North Carolina." "Resolution concerning the forwarding of the constitution of the State and its amendments, together with the ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State to the President of the United States." "Ordinance to provide revenue for the year 1865." "Resolution of inquiry of the Public Treasurer what amount has been expended for the families of indigent soldiers; for the purchase of corn for the use of counties, and for the salt work, and in what currency their expenditure has been made." And the "resolution calling upon the Governor for copies of certain acts of the General Assembly passed in secret session," should be acted on, and further that the Convention adjourn at 5 o'clock A. M. Thursday, the 19th inst.

Mr. Howard of Edgecombe, from the committee on the re-organization of the militia, reported "An ordinance to organize a temporary force for the preservation of law and order." [The ordinance will be reported in full as passed.]

Mr. Ferebee, of Camden said, this was a most important ordinance especially in the part of the State he had the honor to represent. Its importance deserves early attention, he therefore moved that it be made the special order for to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Dockery, of Richmond, concurred with his friend, the delegate from Camden (Mr. Ferebee.) There was great necessity that the Convention should act upon this matter at its present session.

The motion prevailed, and it was so ordered.

Mr. Eaton, of Warren, moved to suspend the rules in order to take up the resolutions requesting the President of this Convention to forward to the President of the United States a copy of the Declaration of Rights, and of the Constitution of North Carolina, and of all the amendments to the said Constitution which were adopted prior to the 20th day of May, 1861; and also a copy of the ordinances of this Convention concerning the ordinance of May, 20th, 1861, and slavery."

The motion prevailed, and after a verbal amendment by Mr. Eaton, the resolutions were adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Eleven o'clock having arrived, the special order, the "ordinances declaring what laws and ordinances are in force," was taken up as unfinished business on its third reading.

An amendment of Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, to the fifth section, was under consideration.

The section is as follows: No person who may have been a civil or military officer of the State or of the Confederate Sates, shall be held liable for any act done, or which may be done in the proper discharge of the duties imposed on him by any authority purporting to be a law of the State or Confederate States Government: but such officer shall be exempt from all personal liability therefore, in like manner as if such act had been done under authority. Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to bar any citizen of the States from his civil action for the recovery of damages on account of any improper or illegal execution of the law or authority imposing such duties.

Mr. Caldwell of Burke, moved to amend by inserting after the word "officer" the words "or private," and after the word "liable" the words "to indictment," and strike out all the residue of the section after the words "Confederate States Government." The two first amendments were rejected by a viva voce vote and upon the third, Mr. Faison of Sampson called the yeas and nays, and the amendment did not pass, yeas 33, nays 79.

Those who voted in the affirmative are Messrs. Boyden, Bradley, Bryan, Caldwell, of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Dick, Dockery, Donnell, Ellis, Gahagan, Garland, Garret, Harris of Guilford, Haynes, Henry, Jackson, Jones, of Henderson, Jones, of Rowan, Joyce, King, Logan, Love, of Chatham, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, of Chatham, Patterson, Pool, Rush, Smith, of Johnson, Smith, of Wilke, Spencer, of Montgomery, Thompson, Williams.—33.

Those who voted in the negative are.

Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Allen, Baines, Baker, Barrow, Beam, Bell, Berry, Bingham, Brickell, Brown, Brooks, Burgin, Buxton, Clark, Conigland, Cowper, Dickey, Eaton, Faircloth, Faison, Faulkner, Ferebee Furches, Gillam, Godwin, Grissom, Harris, of Rutherford, Hanraban, Hodge, Howard, Jarvis, Johnston, Jones, of Columbus, Jones of Davidson, Joyner, Kelly, Kennedy, Love of Jackson, Lyon, Manly, McCauley, McCleese, McCorkle, McCoy of Sampson, McKay, of Harnett, McGehee, McIver, N. A. McLean, Nat. McLean, McLaughlin, McRae, Mebane, Moore, of Wake, Murphy, Nicholson, Norfleet, Odom, Perkins, Phillips, Polk, Rumley, Russell, Saunders, Simmons, Smith, of Anson, Spencer of Hyde, Starbuck, Stephens, Stewart, Stubbs, Walkup, Ward, Willey, Wilson, Winburne, Winston, Wright.—79.

Mr. Starbuck of Forsythy, moved to amend by inserting after the word "damages" the words "or from indictment," and by adding the section this proviso: "that no order issued without authority of what purported to be a law of the State or Confederate States." Both of which amendments were adopted.

Mr. Faulkner of Surry, moved to amend by striking out all between the words "law of the State" and the words "provided nevertheless."

Mr. Moore, of Wake, opposed the amendment. Every illegal act not excused or pardoned is subject to indictment, and every trespass is liable to damages. Every one who had done his duty under a law of the State or the Confederate States, should be protected. It had been said on this floor, that during the rebellion, we were obliged to pass laws and order their execution under the existing circumstances, and those who acted honestly under them should be protected. There was considerable difference between the law and an order of an officer. The order must be governed by a law or it is illegal—if it departs from it, it is not protected by the panoply of the law. Is there any law of the State or of the Confeberate States to justify the burning of houses or to permit outrages upon citizens? I think not—and if there is, how many of the members of this grave body are responsible for them? It has been said that it would be difficult to determine when an order is justified by the law, that may be—but can that be a reason why we should not legislate upon it. We only desire to protect those who should be protected—and upon this a judge and jury would decide.

The amendment of the gentleman from Surry, (Mr. Faulkner.) would protect those who acted under the authority of the State, and not under that of the Confederate States. It now protects all alike. The same Convention that assumed to withdraw the State from the United States, also assumed to make us citizens of the Confederate States, and the acts were equally valid. That body and succeeding Legislature elected Confederate States Senators, the people elected members to the Congrass of the Confederate States—one of them a Senator, you have honored by placing over the deliberations of this body—others are members of the Convention, and they voted for the laws of that government, and we are responsible for them. Then, why should we make the distinction? He had in his mind, when he drew up this section, the act of 1783, making a similar provision for those engaged in the revolutionary war. He wished he had it now to show the wisdom and conciliatory spirit of our fathers in hurrying in oblivion what had been done in strife and ill humor.

Mr. Faulkner withdrew his amendment.

Essay on Dogs.—Josh Billings favors the world with a brief essay on dogs. "Dogs in the lump," says Joshua, "are useful, but they are not always profitable. The Nufoundlin dog is useful to save children from drowning; but you have got to have a pond of water and children running about kareless, or else the dog ain't profitable. There ain't nothing made bow dog a Newfoundlin dog. Rat-terdies are useful to ketch rats; but the rats ain't profitable after you have ketched them. The shepherd dog is useful tew drive sheep; but if you have to go and buy a flock of sheep, and pay more than they are wuth just to keep the dog bussy, the dog ain't profitable—not much. Lapdogs are very useful; but if you dont hold them in your lap awl the time, they ain't profitable at all. The coach dog is one of the most useful ov dogs I know ov; but yu have got to have a coach (and that ain't always pleasant) or you can't realize from the dog. Thus we see that, while dogs are generally useful, there are times when they ain't generally profitable."

A Western paper gives the following notice:

All notices of marriage, where no bride cake is sent, will be set up in small type and poked into some outlandish corner of the paper.—where a handsome piece of cake is sent it will be put conspicuously in large letters; when gloves or other bridal favors are added, a piece of illustrative poetry will be given in addition. When, however, the editor attends the ceremony in propria persona, and kisses the bride, it will have special notice—very large type, and the most appropriate poetry that can be begged, borrowed, stolen, or coined from the brain editorial.
